On September 23, 1778, John Paul Jones, aboard his flagship, the 40-gun Bonhomme Richard, sighted a British convoy, led by the mighty 50-gun Serapis. The battle that ensued was one of the most devastating ever fought by two sailing ships. At the battle's height, when called upon to surrender, Jones' only reply was: "I have not yet begun to fight!" Finally, badly disabled, the Serapis surrendered. Jones' courage and resolution had given him a great victory.
